Your child's school report

You will receive a written report from your child's school at the end of the school year. This report will give you information on your child's progress and achievement in school in four key areas:

- A. Your child as a learner
- B. Your child's social and personal development
- C. Your child's learning across the curriculum
- D. Your key role in supporting your child's learning

The report may include information on:

Your child as a learner	 how your child likes learning in school how your child works with other children, or on his/her own how your child keeps trying at work, even when it is hard how well your child works in school or at home
Your child's social and personal development	 if your child appears happy in school how he/she behaves how he/she gets on with other children in the classroom and in the playground
Your child's learning across the curriculum	 how he/she is getting on in English, Gaeilge, mathematics, and in the other subject areas whether he/she needs a little or a lot of help with school work whether your child needs a little or a lot of help with homework You can watch a DVD on children's learning in primary schools at www.ncca.ie
How you can further support your child's learning	 how you might be able to help your child to do better in school things you can do at home to help with your child's learning For tip sheets on ways you can help your child to learn, visit www.ncca.ie
Standardised test results	 the result of a standardised test which will appear as a number. Schools must share the standardised test result with you when your child is in 2nd, 4th and 6th class. your child's teacher should provide you with a leaflet explaining standardised testing and test scores For leaflets for parents on standardised testing, visit www.ncca.ie
Comments 24 Merrion Square, Dublin 2	 how your child is doing from his/her teachers point of view a comment on some aspect of the report or perhaps drawing your attention to something (s)he would like to talk to you about specific praise for your child on a special achievement or quality
